Original Poetry.

For the Republican.

TO A BEAUTIFUL YOUNG GIRL.

BY "B."

Life's opening roses around you beam brightly,
Your season of life is young June;
Sweet hopes fill your heart as it beats now so lightly,
Beats time to life's rhythmical tune.
And shall the dear hopes which so fondly you cherish,
Which now with such brilliancy glow,
E'er fade from your heart-as the sweet flowers perish,
O loveliest maiden, no! no!

Yon bobolink bending the twig, softly singing,
And sweetly excels not your lay;
Your silvery notes, so melodiously ringing,
My heart irresistably sway.
And shall these rich musical accents be ever
Changed into sad warblings of woe?
O beautiful, lovely young songster! no never,
Dear, charming young singer, no! no!

Yon bright fleecy cloud that is soaring in ether,
Can move not so lightly as you;
Nor looks she on aught that's beneath her,
That's fairer, more lovely or true.
And shall those light footsteps, so graceful and airy,
With sorrow be heavy and slow?
That purity stained by dark sin, pretty Fairy?
Dear, sweet, pretty Fairy, no! no!

The "wee little lambkin," which o'er the green meadow
Plays pranks in its frolicsome glee,
Knows more of life's sorrow, grief's terrible shadow,
Than ever have visited thee.
Shall clouds of grief's gloom o'er thy firmament thicken,
The sun of thy gladness sink low,
Thy heart with dark sorrow be cruelly stricken?
Dear, bonny, bright maiden, no! no!

BROKEN VOWS.

BY BECKIE HARRIS.

"The stars looked down, and what did they see?"
Two lovers beneath an orange tree;
The waving leaves above each head,
Smiled at the silly words they said.
The gay darts of Cupid flew fast and sweet
As the lover knelt at the lady's feet.
And vowed to her the depth of his love,
By the mythological Gods above.
The vow was breathed, the goal was swung,
True lovers were they, but they were young.

"The stars look down, and what do they see?"
Two lovers are parting angrily,
Both have proved false, and now they part,
With broken vows wrapped in each heart.
He accused her of flirting young men,
And vows she will never flirt him again.
Her lofty spirit is shook with pride,
She vows she ne'er would have been the bride
Of one so suspicious as him—;
Now—they part in the twilight dim.

"The stars'll look down, and what will they see?"
A green grave under the orange tree.
O'er broken vows the leaves will sigh,
While tears drop from the maiden's eye.
Alas, one crushed heart, and a lonely grave,
Will be the relicts of the lovers brave.
Thus friendship's vows are often broken,—
Sweet words are forgotten that once were spoken,
And paths sever, through pride and rife,
Which, side by side, sho'd wind thro' life.

History of the 49th Pennsylvania.

BY A. B. HUTCHISON,
Late Captain of Company 'C.'

CHAPTER XVI.

Battle of May 10th—Battle of May 12th—March across Ny river—Move to our Right—Fight of our Reinforcements—March to Guinney Station—March to North Anna River—Skirmish on South Bank—Tearing up Virginia Central Railroad—Prisoners—Butler's House—March to Chesterfield Station—Forced night march to Pamunkey river—March to Hanover C. H.—Skirmish on the Talopotomy—March to Cold Harbor—Battle of June 1st—Battle of June 3d—Digging up to the Rebels—Seven days in close Quarters—Mistaken Rebels—Evacuation of Cold Harbor.

On the morning of May 10th, 1864, a day ever memorable in our annals, there was enough of preparation visible to make it certain we were to attack the enemy, who were strongly posted, and fortified, in our front. Three companies had been detailed from the regiment; one, the writer's, was posted on our flank, as skirmishers, to prevent a sudden movement upon our flank, with special instructions as to the duty expected of them, and Captains Quigley and Stuart were sent with their Companies to drive the enemy's skirmish line back to their works, and enable our columns to get closer to their works. Soon the work of this bloody day commenced, and Stuart and Quigley began to lose men rapidly, though they succeeded in accomplishing the task assigned them, and did it gallantly. Their losses were so heavy, and their task so hard, that they were relieved by Captains Wakefield and Wambacker, who also lost some men in retaining their position against the enemy's skirmishers. As it grew towards evening, our regiment was moved out, along with eleven other regiments of the division, and formed in a column, four lines deep, and three regiments front.—They were to charge and go through the lines of the enemy at a certain point near Spottsylvania C. H. Gen. Upton was in command of the attacking column. The time came, the word was given, and away went the troops, through the brush, up the hill, and over an open space into the rebel rifle pit. The men fell rapidly under the enemy's fire, but the charge was irresistable, and the enemy's entire force posted in their pits in our front, about one thousand, all fell in our hands as prisoners. Three successive lines of earthworks were gained, and twelve guns were in our hands. The column was in much confusion, for they had encountered a terrible fire of artillery and musketry, and had a hand-to-hand fight in the works. Our Lt. Col., John B. Miles, of Huntingdon, lay dead already, just inside the rebel works, and our wounded were working their way, painfully, to the rear. The struggle had been short, but severe; and our men cheered, in unwonted enthusiasm, as they sent their thousand captured rebels to the rear. For a few minutes there was a quiet—a sort of lull in conflict—and then, from the front, and both flanks, the enemy rushed upon the bold Yankees who had penetrated their works, with tremendous force and in overpowering numbers. They did not get us out without a sharp, and, indeed, most bloody struggle. Our men fought for their hard-earned foot-hold desperately, but they had no help on either flank, and were driven out, and back, with very great losses. Capt. Kephart, who was beyond the enemy's Artillery, fell, mortally wounded, and was left, dying, farthest ahead of all our men. Col. Hulings, our commanding officer, endeavoring to rally a force to check the advance of a column of rebels, fell, killed, while but few of the men who had gathered about escaped the effects of the volley that swept their position. Capt. Barr was successfully rescued, wounded, and carried to the rear, but afterwards died, and Lt. Lytle was left in the enemy's hands, mortally hurt, as it proved afterwards. Driven back, we found that we had lost, by this one evening's fight, in not more than a half hour, almost one-half our regiment. Five officers were killed, including Colonel and Lt. Colonel. Eleven were wounded; some of them severely. Eighty one men were killed, to a certainty. One hundred and four were missing, and many of them were, probably, killed or wounded, and we had one hundred and seventy-two wounded in our own hands. Our camp was very desolate that night, and it scarcely seemed like the old 49th. Some of the slightly wounded remained on duty, or we could not, after these five days of the Wilderness, have mustered one half of the seven hundred and thirty muskets with which we started out.

We failed even to secure possession of that ground, and so lost the bodies of our comrades and commanding officers, nor have the graves of any of them ever been recognized. Their bones have been gathered up and buried, but their graves are among the legion that are marked "unknown."

Col. Thos. M. Hulings was a member of the Mifflin county Bar; had gone into the service with the Logan Guards of Lewistown, as 1st Lieutenant, in April, 1861. This was the first volunteer company to reach Washington, and suffered all sorts of indignities in passing thro' Baltimore, April 18, from the mob who attacked and murdered some of the 6th Massachusetts regiment next day. Col. Hulings assisted in organizing our regiment, taking the commission of Major. He was made Lt. Colonel on the resignation of Lt. Col. Brisbane, and Colonel on the filling up of the Regiment, in place of Col. Irwin, resigned, a short time before his death. He was universally and deservedly esteemed by both officers and men, and was particularly distinguished for his coolness and courage in battle.

Lt. Col. John B. Miles entered the service as Captain of company C, which he organized in Huntingdon. He was promoted to Major, and Lt. Colonel, successively, at the same time that Col. Hulings took his higher commissions. He was a very energetic and efficient officer; strict in requiring perfect discipline amongst his subordinates, but always treating his comrades with courtesy and politeness. He was a man of liberal education and fine feelings, and was brave, even to rashness.

Capt Wm. P. Kephart entered the service in company G, and was promoted to the rank of Sergeant. Being amongst the supernumeraries detailed for the recruiting service, he was so energetic in prosecuting his labors as to succeed in recruiting a company in Snyder county, of which he was made Captain. This was the first campaign for his company, which was a very fine one, and was most gallantly led by their commander. He fell beyond the guns of the enemy, from which he had driven them, shot through the body. His comrades were compelled to leave him there dying. He was a most excellent soldier and good officer, and was very much in earnest in his devotion to the cause for which he fought.—All three of these officers had served during the war.

Capt. Robert G. Barr, who died of his wound soon after the fight, had been promoted, also, from the ranks, and had commanded his company but a brief time when he received the fatal wound. He was a modest, quiet and unassuming gentleman; was a brave and careful soldier, a consistent christian, and was as universally mourned, as he had been universally loved and respected.

Lt. Decatur H. Lytle, of Huntingdon, fell near the close of the action, inside the works of the enemy, shot through the lungs, and was left in the enemy's hands, supposed to be dying. It was ascertained afterwards that he lived a considerable length of time in a hospital near Spottsylvania. What his history and experience there was, we shall probably never know. He was a cheerful companion, brave man, and deserved a better fate than he met.

We buried those of our dead we had rescued from the enemy, on the 11th of May, when all was quiet along the lines; we sent our wounded back to the new-created hospitals, or to Fredericksburg, and occupied our time in discussing our great struggle, and our great calamity, and in preparing for the conflict of the days to come. We did not know what a day might bring forth, and we certainly did not look for such a struggle again, as we met at Spottsylvania on the 12th day of May.

Coincidences.

The following is taken from the N. Y. Evening Post, having appeared in that paper in 1846:

"We were struck, the other day, in looking at a work called the Lives of the Presidents, with a few curious coincidences of numbers which relate to the line of five Presidents, beginning and ending with an Adams. Here is a table, for instance, of the periods in which they were born and went out of office:

Born.	Retired.
1735,.....John Adams,.....	1801.
1743,.....Thomas Jefferson,.....	1809.
1751,.....James Madison,.....	1817.
1759,.....James Monroe,.....	1826.
1767,.....John Q. Adams,.....	1829.

Now it will be seen by this, that Jefferson was born just eight years after his predecessor Adams; Madison eight after his predecessor Jefferson; Monroe eight after Madison, and John Quincy Adams eight years after Monroe. Another curious fact to be observed is, that Adams was just sixty-six years old when he retired; Jefferson was sixty-six; Madison was sixty-six; Monroe was sixty-six; and John Quincy Adams, had he been elected to a second term would have been sixty-six. Adams, Jefferson, and Monroe all died on the fourth of July.

MECHANICS' WIVES.—It is in the middle ranks of life, where we behold woman in all her glory—not a doll to carry silks and jewels; not a puppet to be flattered by profane adoration; reverenced to-day, discarded to morrow; admired but not esteemed; ruling by passion, not affection; imparting her weakness, not her constancy, to the sex she would exhalt; the source and miror of vanity—we see her as a wife, partaking the cares and cheering the anxieties of a husband; dividing his toils, by her domestic diligence; spreading cheerfulness around her, for her sake; sharing the decent refinements of the world without being proud of them; placing all her joys and happiness from the man she loves. As a mother, we find her the affectionate, the ardent instructress of the children whom she has tended from their infancy; training them up to thought and virtue, to piety and benevolence; addressing them as rational beings and preparing them to become men and women in their turn. Mechanics' daughters should make the best wives in the world.

DR. TYNG met an emigrant family going West. On one of the wagons there hung a jug with the bottom knocked out. "What is that?" asked the Doctor.—"Why it is my Taylor jug," said the man. And what is a "Taylor jug?" asked the Doctor again. "I had a son in Taylor's army in Mexico, and the General always told him to carry his whisky jug with a hole in the bottom, and that's it. It is the best invention I ever met with for hard drinkers."

AN old lady, recently, in some court before which she was brought as a witness, when asked to take off her bonnet, obstinately refused to do so, saying:—"There is no law to compel a woman to take off her bonnet." "Oh!" imprudently replied one of the judges, "you know the law, do you; perhaps you would like to come up and sit here, and teach us?" "No, I thank you, sir," said the woman tartly, "there are old women enough there now."

AN Irishman recently stopped at a hotel in Des Moines, Iowa, where pretty high bills were charged. In the morning the landlord made out the amount of damages and presented it to Pat. After he had glanced over it, the latter looked the landlord in the face, and exclaimed:

"You put me in mind of a snipe."

"Why?" asked the landlord.

"Because ye're very nigh all bill."

A KNOWING traveler out West, who had chartered half a bed in a crowded hotel, and was determined to have the best half, buckled a spur on his heel before turning in. His unfortunate sleeping partner bore the infliction as long as he could, and at last roared out:

"Say, stranger, if your a gentleman, you ought to cut your toe nails,"

ONE day Piron visited Voltaire, who was not at home. To bully him, he wrote upon his door, "Old Rogue." Two days after he met the author of the Henriade. "I went to see you," said he, with a cunning look, "and did not find you."—"I know it," replied Voltaire, "you left your name upon the door."

"Sam, why don't you talk to Massa, and tell him to lay up his treasures in Heaven?"

"What for? What de use ob lavin' up treasure dar, he nebber see em again?"

A sure way to stop a woman's mouth—kiss it.

NEW DILEMMA.—Does Asa Packer own any United States bonds, or did he ever do so?

This is the latest dilemma of the unfortunate Democracy.

If he does or did, then he is a bloated bondholder, to borrow the elegant language of the leading Democratic journals.

If he does not, or never did, then he refused to aid the Government in the hour of its peril in the only way he could aid it.

If his millions, like a Democrat's doubts, have always been cast against his country, they are not to his credit.

If on the other hand, his money is invested in the tax-exempted bonds of the Government, then he has been violating the first principles of the gospel of modern Democracy after Brick Pomeroy.

On which horn of the dilemma does Mr. Packer hang? Can his "next friend" in Philadelpcia tell us?

IMPORTANT INQUIRY.—Under what law is Asa Packer taxed and allowed to vote in Philadelphia when he and his family, for the last twenty years, have resided in Mauch Chunk? After careful inquiry and diligent search, we have been unable to find any law of Pennsylvania authorizing this most unusual performance by the gentleman in question; and we are therefore forced to conclude he assumes to act under some ancient statue of Connecticut. Let the people have more light on this question. We caution our Democratic cotemporaries to not all speak at once.—Tel.

WHICH IS THE SECTIONAL PARTY?—Sectionalism is in much favor with the party who are now making such desperate efforts to overcome the will of the people. A Cleveland paper, in cautioning Democratic stump speakers, says:

Democracy in Ohio is not the same thing exactly with Democracy in Pennsylvania, and Democratic stump orators coming into either State to aid in the canvass must be careful to see on which side of the line they are when they open their mouths."

When did so called Republican sectionalism ever reach such an ebb as this?

HOW DO DEMOCRATS like the "great victory" in Tennessee, after Senter's Nashville speech? He emphasized the following in a short address delivered before an immense audience on the 10th inst.: There must be no proscription on account of rebellion, race or COLOR! Suffrage and the fullest political and civil rights must be FREE TO ALL! That "civil rights" means office for the negro; and the election of Senter is hailed as a great Democratic victory. Well may every Irish Democrat exclaim, "Am I I, or who am I?"

THE NATIONAL DEBT.—The National debt, during the last month, was reduced Seven Millions Four Hundred Thousand Dollars. The total reduction of the debt since Grant's inauguration—is about FORTY FOUR MILLIONS OF DOLLARS. These figures, while they operate as a death-knell to the despairing hopes of the Democracy, knocking the props from under them and destroying all their argument, speak volumes in favor of a Republican administration.

ARE YOU REGISTERED?—Let every Republican see to it personally that he is registered. Don't depend upon any one else, but go to the Assessor yourself, and go at once, so that there may be no mistake about it. Naturalized citizens must present their certificates thereof to the Assessor when applying for registration, unless they have been voters in the district for five consecutive years.

THE NEW YORK WORLD of August 4 has a six and a half column article to show that the Democratic party is "the only party pledged to restore specie payments."

And now to prove its unsurpassed consistency, the Democratic party of Ohio nominates Geo. H. Pendleton, the advocate of an unlimited paper currency, as their candidate for Governor.

A YOUNG man named Powell, while mocking a deaf and dumb person on the cars, between Bellville and Galloway's, Tennessee, a few days ago, was suddenly struck totally deaf and dumb. He returned to Bellville, and wrote as follows: "God has sent this awful punishment upon me to teach man never to mock at the infirmities of his fellow man."

GENERAL ROSECRANS has outflanked the enemy once more. His declination of the nomination for Governor of Ohio at their hands looks very much as if he did not like their company. He seems to have no taste for leading the party now, that he was obliged to fight during the war.

ADVERTISING.—The BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN has a larger circulation than any other Republican paper published in the county. Our merchants and business men will please make a note of this.

GET UP CLUBS.—We hope that our friends in each of the townships will go to work to secure us a list of subscribers for the campaign. The price of the Republican for three Months is ——50 cts. Every member of the party should subscribe for it. We appeal to Post Masters and others to get up clubs for the Republican.

RATIFICATION MEETING.—We are authorized by JNO. T. JOHNSON, Esq., Chairman of the county Committee, to say that there will be a Ratification meeting of the Union Republican party, at the Court House, on Wednesday evening, 25th inst. The meeting will be addressed by Hon. H. B. SWOOPE, and other distinguished speakers. Let the friends of the Union and Libertycome in their strength. Our cause is a good one. Let us have a meeting worthy the ticket. Success is certain if we but do our duty.

MONEY! MONEY!—Court commences on Monday the 23rd inst. Many of our subscribers will be in town.—Gentlemen, we wish to see you each, and every one, in our sanctum. If you have paid in advance, you have our thanks; if you have not yet paid, we know that you do not feel comfortable, and wish to do so at your earliest convenience. Court week will afford you the opportunity. It would be a great relief to us, if all those who have not paid, would do so during this month. But, money or no money, friends, call and see us. We want to see your pleasant faces in our office.

Imperialism Established by the Court House Ring.

We have maintained, and subsequent events all go to prove, that the Democratic party is fast culminating in Imperialism. A large majority of the Southern portion of the Democratic party are openly opposed to a Republican form of Goverment. They want a strong Government—amonarchy-one in which they and their lineal descendants may always reign.

This suits them exactly, because they are aristocratic, and have realized that being out of office does not pay. The Democratic leaders North, so long accustomen to obeying the beck and nod of those Southern imperialistic nabobs, naturally fall into their way of thinking, and have commenced preparing the minds of the Democratic masses for the new regime. We have been watching the course of these leaders closely for a long time, but we had no idea that they would attempt to show their hand so soon. The last Democratic Convention in this county fully developed the whole scheme, and proves that the Ring, although not Calvanistic, religiously speaking, do politically believe that "once in power always in power." So that they have determin'd that powershall not pass out of the royal family. Every member of the household must be provided for.

Honest Democrats of Centre, if you have any eyes, or if you can, lay aside your prejudices, and see how it works. The Democratic County Convention is convened. And how? Why in this wise. J. D. SHUGERT, as Chairman of the standing Committee issued his mandatory, or imperialistic orders to his political "Cooley's" to meet on the 7th, to elect delegates to congregate on Tuesday, the 10th, and in Convention assembled, confirm the ticket as fixed upon by the "Typoons" of the "Ring."

At the appointed time, the faithful met; but J. D SHUGERT had not time to remain. He, by virtue of his imperial power, appointed his father, S. T. SHUGERT, Esq., as his procurator to fix up, and put the machine going, and bestowing, in the lineal line, the franchise of said Chairmanship to the old gentleman for the current year.—Some of the delegates may think they helped to do this. But we deny it, and say, it was all fixed before the convention assembled.

Now look at the wisdom of the movement on the part of his imperial majesty, J. D. SHUGERT. The Chairmanship is an important station. It is a very important position financially considered at this time, as Centre county's share of the PACKER electioneering fund will go into the hands of the Chairman of the standing Committee. Now, our young friend LOP knew this, and as "the old gentleman" was Chief Clerk in the Patent office for years, he knew how to take care of secret funds. True, my lord! J. D. SHUGERT, familiarly called LOP, was too cute, for the dupes assembled, in the management of this nice piece of financial business. It was nice financiering. The question now arises, how much of the PACKER electioneering fund will pass out of the hands of the Chairman into the hands of the voters—the men who do the work? But who will complain? Who dare complain? The mandate of his Imperial highness must be obeyed and no questions asked.

Last year, it is said, that Hon. L. A MACKEY paid, for the use of this county, $2,000. What became of it? Did the voters—the workingmen—the hewers of wood and drawers of water in the party get the money? A very reliable Democrat has informed us that he spent his own money, and that he notic'd that a great many fancy and fast horses were bought, by those who did not spend their own money, soon after the election. Thus it will ever be just so long as the Democratic masses suffer the Court House Ring and his Imperial majesty to rule.

Honest Democrats, we appeal to you to come back to your first principles. Annihilate the "Ring," and all who in any way support or uphold it. You believe that the majority should rule, and not a corrupt Ring. So do we.—You believe in the Declaration of Independence, and in the Jeffersonian doctrine of "Equal and exact justice to all men. So do we. But your leaders do not. They are aristocratic, and have chosen a millionaire nabob for their Gubernatorial candidate—a man who amassed his immense wealth by oppressing and grinding the poor.—You do not, (we know you do not) approve their course. You despise their pride and aristocracy—their Imperial characteristics and proclivities. Why then remain in the party? Why act and co-operate with such men? They have always cheated you. They will ever cheat you. Leave the foul party. Come over to us. Aid us to keep this the purest and best Government in the world. This is your only hope. Come then, go with us, and we will do you good.

A Slight Difference.

A late Radical paper states that "J. P. Gephart has made one of the best officers this county ever had."—True as preaching, but where, under heavens, does the Radical organ find candor enough to acknowledge it?—Watchman.

We didn't find it at all, nor did we say it. You do not quote us correctly, thus giving further evidence of your inability to tell the truth. Learn to tell the truth, MEEK, and "Shame the devil." What we did say, was, "that our Democratic friends claim that that J. P. GEPHART has made," &c. PETER, your pretended surprise will not do, and if you had a particle of candor you would tell that, for the very reason given, Mr. GEPHART was politically sacrified by the Bellefonte Ring. Yes, sold out to secure the nomination for yourself and MORAN. But MORAN proved himself to be the true political Ishmaelite, and killed you off. A little on the principle of diamond cut diamond, you know, PETER.

He that diggeth a ditch for his neighbor, is very apt to fall into it himself, so you in your anxiety for re-election, and the defeat of Mr. GEPHART, fell into your own pit. MORAN was a little more fortunate in the nominating Convention; but he will go down into the pit on the 2d Tuesday of October next. The people have determined that this shall be the end of the Ishmaelite.

Where the Laugh Comes In.

"Lewis Hess, the negro suffrage candidate for Commissioner, made himself rich, cheating his neighbors in Potter twp., with worthless 'oil stock.'"

So says the Democratic Watchman; but will PETER answer this question? In what does Mr. HESS show his richness? Men do not act the rascal generally, without something to show for it. Now, PETER does show his wealth. He struck the corrupt "Ile well" while in the Legislature, and is building himself a "brick palace" that will cost $7,000, and if he had not been defeated in the nomination this time, could have secured sufficient through the BURNSES, to play the d—l, with poor folks, and virtuous and honest, so-called Legislators. Too bad! too bad!—It was a real shame to deprive PETER of a few thousand dollars by refusing to send him back to the Legislature. PETER wanted to go "dree times," but Rings are sometimes ungrateful to their tricksters, as well as tools.

Never mind, PETER. Dry up your tears. BURNS and POTTER will come to your relief. Query! We would like to know why the Patriot, Democratic, and the State Guard, Radical, refused to publish your name in their list of honest men? MEEK, "du tell."

IT is said the Ohio Copperheads have lost faith in the virtue of soldier candidates to lead their forlorn hosts. They are determined to take a full-blooded reble of the Vallandigham or Pendleton stripe next time. Why don't they try a reble General, assume colors; it would at least have the virtue of candor.

Who was Cheated?

JNO. MORAN, Esq., the "Ring" candidate for Prothonotary, succeeded in obtaining the nomination. He had been clerk to the Commissioners for nearly ten years, and has erected a splendid castle which he values at ten thousand dollars, and the "Ring" put their rotation principle into operation by rotating JOHN from one office into another. To make a sure thing of it, JOHN bargained with other candidates, that if they would secure their delegates to go for him, he would transfer his delegates to them. Some of them did not trust JOHN; but SIMON S. WOLFE entered into the bargain, and per contract, WOLFE'S delegates voted for JOHN; but when the vote was taken on the Treasury candidates, JNO'S delegates were like KARTHAUS' flea, not there, to vote for WOLFE, but given to another, whom, it was believed at the time would be successful, and beat WOLFE.

For let it be understood that the Ring, to make sure, had two candidates and JNO. MORAN had plooced with both of them. WOLF did not suit the Ring, until they were compelled at the eleventh hour to take him or lose the war element of the party. WOLE made it by the merest accident. MORAN made it by sharp practice. Who was cheated? What say you SIMON S. WOLF Esq? You know we are right. Now how does it stand? MORAN represents the anti-war or copperhead wing of the party. SIMON represents the war Democrats or anti copperhead wing. Is J. MORAN or S. S. WOLFE the better Democrat? If WOLFE was wrong in going to war and is now right, then J. MORAN, an able bodied young and single man, was wrong in staying at home and is wrong now. Who is the true Democrat? The man who voted for LINCOLN in 1864, or the man who voted for MCCLELLAN? How long do the Democrats require a man who has been a soldier to vote the Democratic ticket before taking him into full fellowship? And how long must anti-war Democrats work in the harness before they are considered equal to one of "LINCOLN'S hirelings," as MEEK would say? These questions are very important. They should be answered. If such men as Col. LOVE, SAM'L. HERRING, P. W. BARNHART, B. F. BROWN, JAS. F. WEAVER, JOS. WILSON, GRIFF DAVIS, and others—the old wheelhorses of the Democracy of Centre county are to be thrust aside for ever, to make way for men, the new lights of the party—the men who voted for President LINCOLN in 1864, we think it is high time they should know it. The fact is the Ring is supreme, and JOHN MORAN is its prophet—the pet of his Imperial majesty S. T. SHUGERT, the royal blooded chairman. Somebody has been cheated? Will our honest Pennsvalley Democrats tell us who? Will the friends of Col. LOVE answer? Will B. F. BROWN speak now, or will he forever submit to the tricks, hypocrisy and chicanery of dishonest and unprincipled men? Awake! arouse! or be forever fallen.

Pennsylvania For Pennsylvanians.

With a State pride which is complimentary to the people of Pennsylvania they have studiously adhered to the rule of electing only natives to the office of Governor. This high position has been filled by sixteen gentlemen, since the adoption of the constitution of 1790. Thomas Mifflin, elected in 1790, was a native of Philadelphia; Thomas McKean, elected in 1799, was born in Chester county; Simon Snyder, chosen in 1808, was a native of Lancaster; William Findley, elected in 1817, was a native of Franklin county: Joseph Hiester, chosen in 1820, was born in Berks county; J. Andrew Shultz, elected in 1823, was a native of Berks county. George Wolf, chosen in 1829, was born in Northumberland; David R. Porter, selected in 1838, was a native of Montgomery; Francis R. Shunk, chosen in 1844, was born in Montgomery; W. F. Johnson, elected in 1848, was born in Westmoreland; William Bigler, chosen in 1851, was born in Cumberland; James Pollock, elected in 1854, native of Northumberland; Wm. F. Packer, chosen in 1857, native of Centre; Andrew G. Curtin, chosen in 1860, born in Centre; John W. Geary, elected in 1866, native of Westmoreland. Few States can present such a line of Chief Magistrates as this. The prosperity of the State, so far as its Executive officers have been concerned, has always been in the keeping of her own sons. Right sacredly has it been guarded.

The people have been satisfied, and as no good reason at present appears why the time-honored custom should be dispensed with, the resolve has gone forth that it shall not be. Whatever minor offices may be given to others, let the motto on the back of the Executive chair be Pennsylvania for Pennsylvanians. This is even more than a matter of pride now, for the wealth, influence, and commercial instincts of the Democratic nominee all tend toward New York, a city that would gladly gain control of our great coal and iron regions for its own aggrandisement and our ruin.—Phil'a. Press.

NOTHING can be more frivolous, foolish or absurd than the statement that Judge Packer made his money by the "sweat of his brow," as a laboring man. The Mauch Chunk Gazette pertinently asks—"How many workmen on the Lehigh Valley Railroad will ever make $20.000,000 by the labor of their hands,—and they probably get better wages than Mr. Packer did when he was poor.

Packer's Fraud.

The following article from the Mauch Chunk Gazette, reveals more of Packer than is to be learned from Democratic biographies. Is a man who would be guilty of so contemptible a dodge, fit for Governor? Read it and then answer: 'The impression has gone out through the papers of the State that Judge Packer's residence is in this county. This is a mistake. It is true he has a splendid mansion here, that his family reside in it, and that he regards it as his home, but in 1867 he took up his legal residence in the Sixth Ward. Philadelphia, by having himself assessed and his taxes paid there. He did this to avoid giving Carbon county the benefit of the revenue it was entitled to derive from the legal taxation on his vast estate. The County Commissioners and Borough Councils, however, succeeded by legal process in collecting the taxes for that year, which had been assessed here, but which he hoped to be able to transfer to Philadelphia. Since then Mr. Packer has lived here just as he has done for the last twenty-five years, and has utterly refused to contribute by his taxes to the support of our schools, our almshouse, our roads, and our borough—dodging the question by a nominal residence in a distant city. This procedure, which perhaps his friends can reconcile with that "honor" of which we hear so much in connection with his private character, evinces a spirit of petty spite and a lack of local pride that the people of this county do not palliate or forgive. Mr. P. still delights to be recognized as the head and front of the extensive interests of Carbon county and the Lehigh Valley. The foundation of his colossal fortune was laid on its soil and all his enterprises are located. And yet by a legal subterfuge, a trick, he defrauds the county of taxes which rightfully belong to its treasury, and leaves its public institutions to the care of citizens of less ability but greater merit, by turning over his taxes to a county a hundred miles away.

It may be urged that he has a right to select his residence wherever he may see fit. So he has, and if he pays taxes where he honestly resides we shall have no fault to find. But for him to retain his actual abode here and yet pretend to reside in Philadelphia, for the purpose we have stated, is simply insufferable, and we protest against his claiming to be "of Carbon county" so long as he refuses to pay his taxes within her limits."

Fe dleton and Packer.

The nomination of George H. Pendleton for Governor by the Democratic State Committee of Ohio, in place of Gen. Rosecrans, who declined the dubious honor, places the Democracy of Ohio in full accord with the party in this State upon the leading questions in national politics. The Lancaster Express says: "Unlike Rosecrans, Pendleton notoriously sympathized with the rebels and secessionists, and like Packer he was a friend and admirer of Vallandigham, whom Rosecrans discharged into the rebel lines as a traitor. A minor point of resemblance between Pendleton and Packer is that both are carpet baggers in the State they aspire to rule over—Pendleton being a Virginian and Packer what the Copperheads would call a 'blue light Connecticut Yankee.' Both are wealthy men, though we never heard that the taxes on Pendleton's property were so enormous that he was under the necessity of claiming residence in a different county from the one where his wife and children made their home, in order to avoid paying them, and this shows that Packer is, in some respects, the more talented man of the two, and able to teach his Ohio compatriot some things the latter would never have thought. Upon the whole, however, they are remarkably well matched, and it is not to be doubted that the people of their respective States will show an equal appreciation of their merits in October next.

ASA PACKER belongs to the class of "bloated bond holders" about whom the Pittsburgh Post has so frequently shrieked itself hoarse. Worse than that, he belongs to that "precious mean" class, who after getting very rich contrive to shirk out of their taxes. He fled from his home in Mauch Chunk to a second-rate Philadelphia hotel, by which operation he managed to get rid of paying several thousands of dollars in taxes annually. Of course these thousands have to be paid, and it is not too much to say that they are paid by those who are not as able to pay them as Mr. PACKER himself.—There is something indescribably small and mean in a fraud—for we can describe it in no other way—like this.—Men who resort to tricks to shirk their taxes, when discovered are universally and justly despised. No one pretends to deny this statement concerning PACKER. As a mirror reflecting what kind of man he is, its accuracy is not questioned. In these days of taxation the legacy of the treasonable leaders whom PACKER followed as far as he could without shouldering arms for the South—this proven meanness, not to say downright dishonesty of PACKER, ought to be enough to insure his rejection overwhelmingly by the honest taxpaying masses of Pennsylvania. A man with twenty million dollars playing carpet-bagger to get rid of paying his taxes equally with his fellow citizens, surely is not worthy of their votes for their highest honor.—Pittsb'g Commercial.

Jottings by the Wayside.

EDS. REPUBLICAN:—On leaving the "Clear Fountain," I took the 9 o'cl'k p. m., train which made close connection, at Lock Haven, with the express train East, on the P. & E. R. R., and arrived in Harrisburg at 5.15 a. m., next morning, and at 5.25 a. m., same morning, left Harrisburg on the fast train for N. Y., over the Lebanon Valley R. R., and arrived at Bedlam at 11.30 a. m., same day. This is decidedly the best and quickest route from your place to N. Y. The cars on the L. V. R. R., for convenience and comfort, are unsurpassed by those of any other railroad in Penn'a., and its employees are courteous and attentive to passengers—a rare quality to be found among Pennsylvania Railroad "officials."

I will not attempt a full description of N. Y. city, for no mind, in our opinion, is equal to the task; but if we were obliged to make a choice of permanent residence between N. Y. city and that foreign country that we used to read of in an ancient book, and which is now occasionally alluded to in the pulpit, where the therometer is supposed to remain at 500 deg. (f. h.) in the shade, the year round, and the babbling, howling and cursing of its inhabitants are supposed to be heard on an adjoining planet; we would willingly pay 500 per centum, as a bonus for a residence in the ancient kingdom in preference to N. Y. city. The most singular thing is the fact that N. York remains in exactly the same latitude and longitude that it was in when first laid out by the Amsterdam dutch.

The inhabitants of Gotham have commenced removing the foundations of "Hell Gate" by submarine blasting, with the intention of eventually removing the gate and make it passable for ships of the largest size. This fact becoming known to the Ancient Kingdom, caused considerable consternation among them, and they declare that if the Gothamites succeed in their undertaking that the moral standing of their people will be greatly impaired.

New York has more of the extremes of wealth and poverty than any other city on this continent. Railroad kings and rich bankers rule the Island. Misery is situated in the midst of private and public opulence, with all the means to alleviate it.

The city is supplied with water from the Croton River by and aqueduct which conveys the water of this large river into a reservoir which forces it to the top of every house in the city whose owners desire it. It was seven years building, and cost $12,000,000. The water is brought fifty miles. The receiving reservoier covers thirty acres, and the distributing reservoir occupies four acres.

The city contains twenty public parks, exclusive of Cen'l Park, which contains eight hundred and forty-three acres. This park has nine miles of carriage drives, with five more of saddle rides. It is furnished with 22½ miles of walks over costly stone bridges, around beautiful fountains, and amid delightful breezes from artificial lakes.

Blackwell's Island, in East River, receives the victims from the 'Tombs,' who are hurried off daily to clear the jails, with scarcely the formality of a hearing. There is no more respect paid to the right of prisoners to an impart'al trial, than there was in the Spanish Inquisition. The accused find no sanctuary of justice in the purity of the ermine of the judge, or the majesty of the law, in the temples of Gotham. How often do we see imposed upon the convict, a fine of fifty dollars, or six months imprisonment, as the solemn sentence of justice. What is this but selling justice by constraint for filthy lucre? How can dollars and cents atone for criminal violation of law? If the criminal has money he can buy this generous indulgence to invade, with impunity, the offended majesty of the law. Justice has become a mockery; the public mind is disordered; the imagination perverted in relation to crime, and the whole foundation of civil society seems to have been built upon a quick-sand which is gradually drifting away. Let a princely merchant, or a rich banker fall from want or extravagance, and leave millions of obligations unpaid, which beggars thousands of his countrymen, and this is called a misfortune. They are just as well received in society as the ablest minister in the land. Let a man defraud his neighbor out of his property by the many devices of trade without consideration, and it is called a fair business transaction. But let a poor boy take a handful of wood to keep a sick mother from freezing in a wretched hovel, or a morsel of food to sustain that mother from the scanty fare of wretched poverty, and society is shocked at the depravity of the youth. He is made to face the offended majesty of the law, confronted by a prosecuting Attorney who is paid two thousand dollars a year to prevent the affections of a son from rescuing a mother from the cold charities of the world, out of the abundance that Nature has so bountifully bestowed on the family of man.

The keen officer of the law sees crime in the transaction of a loaf of bread, but in a four million defalcation that takes the bread out of the mouths of widows' and orphans', he sees nothihg but a square business transaction according to law.

But, Messrs. Editors, I will not turn moralist, but close this by promising, in my next, to give you a few jottings from the State of Massachusetts. The political horizon is, at the present time, a little cloudy. Yours, &c.,

PHILO.

WORCESTER, MASS., Aug. 16, '69.

SPEAKING of the substitution of PENDLETON for ROSECRANS by the Democracy in the Gubernatoral race in Ohio. the N. Y. Times says that the facility with which the Buckeye Democracy can transfer their affections from one of the bravest of our Union soldiers to one of the best friends of their Confederate enemies, shows at least that ROSECRANS has made, politically, a fortunate escape. We should be sorry to believe that he has so changed since the battle of Stone River as to answer the purposes of a party that could support PENDLETON for any public office. The change certainly has not occurred in the party.

ARE YOU REGISTERED?—All citizens who desire to vote at the October election, should see to it that their names are on the Registry, as made by the Assessors, under the new Registry law. Naturalized citizens must present their certificates to the Assessor when applying for registration, unless they have been voters in the district five consecutive years. It is well to attend to this matter in time, so that all who are entitled to vote shall be registered.

THE Democratic papers, says the Meadville Republican, are very happy in getting up stories representing Hon. JOHN COVODE as very illiterate and ignorant. At all events he has proved too smart for the Democracy, and their efforts for the past fifteen years to get ahead of him have been unavailing. They may ridicule him to their utmost desire, but he can beat them every time.

THE New York World is rampant on specie payments. Mr. Pendleton, for Governor of Ohio, is equally exuberant over a greenback currency. Democratic consistency. The World declares specie payments to be the great aim of that party. The Pennsylvania Democratic Convention used greenbacks.

SOME of his Democratic opponents complain of Geary's fondness for cold water. Why, bless their dear souls, Geary never took as copious a draught of cold water at any one time in his whole life as did Asa Packer on the occasion of his famous involuntary canal bath.

ASA PACKER.—We have yet to hear the first reason from his friends why Asa Packer should be elected Governor, unless the fact that he is worth twenty millions and means to spend it freely in the pending contest be a reason. If there is any other reason we should like to hear it.

The "run" of Judge Packer for the Gubernatorial office is considered by many as a good joke. It will doubtless be a very expensive joke to him, before he is through with it. But those who dance sho'd pay the piper.

SURVEYOR GENERAL'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, PA., July 7, '69.

TO the Owners of Unpatented Lands:

IN obedience to an Act of Assembly, approved the eighth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, you are hereby notified that the "County Land Lien Docket," containing the list of unpatented lands for Centre county, prepared under the Act of Assembly of the twentieth of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and the supplement thereto, has this day been forwarded to the Prothonotary of the county, at whose office it may be examined. The liens can only be liquidated by the payment of the purchase money, interest and fees, and receiving patents through this Department. Proceedings by the Attorney General have been stayed for one year from this date, in order that parties may obtain their patents without additional cost.

BELLEFONTE ACADEMY.

A SELECT SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.

Next Session opens on WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER FIRST, with every facility for the education of youth in all the studies which constitute a liberal and polite education.

Special attention is given to Music and Drawing. Vocal Music is made a regular branch in the course of study, and is taught to all pupils without extra charge.

The Principal is assisted by an ample corps of tried and capable teachers, the united aim being to insure the moral culture, and general refinement, as well as the intellectual improvement of the pupils. Each scholar has a due share of individual attention.

Parents who wish to place their children where there will be no necessity for change till they have completed their education, are invited to visit this School.

Parents who wish to have their daughters board out of the Institution, can find pleasant homes, and at reasonable rates in the town. For further particulars,

Address, Rev. J. P. HUGHES, Principal.

"GRANDFATHERS' STOVE."

Our grandfather's stove, what a fun'y old thing,
So deep, so wide and so tall;
Now the people would say, who are stylish and gay,
"It was only a hole in the wall."

It matters not what, it was pleasant to see
When night's mantle was flung over all;
Grandfather take down his good book and read
By the light from the hole in the wall.

As the sturdy young men rolled in the great logs,
They would laugh at each wintry squall,
Whilst grandma would sit on her old chair and knit
By the light from the whole in the wall.

The girls then wore home spun, and so did their beaux's,
For pride was a principle small;
And courting was done and hearts have been won
By the light from the hole in the wall.

The neighbors were friendly wherever they'd meet,
With a word of true kindness for all;
And joy was complete to hear voices so sweet
Ring round that old hole in the wall.

In those days we know, folks cared not for show,
Of improvements knew nothing at all;
But 'twas really no joke, when great clouds of smoke
Rushed out from the hole in the wall.

But those days are now o'er, we shall know them no more,
And all those old fashions have flown;
Whilst the solemn and gay are coming each day
To purchase the famous "OLD HOME."

Coming not only in couples, but in scores, as hundreds of good and wise men and women have done before, to look upon this magnificent stove, which is acknowledged to be the best cooking stove of the age. Remember the place,

JOB WORK.—Posters, Circulars, Bill Heads, Cards, Paper Books, Job Work of all kinds, neatly executed at the REPUBLICAN OFFICE, at reasonable rates.

FOR SALE.—Mrs. McBride offers a splendid building lot for sale on Bishop street. No prettier locality in town for a residence.

WANTED—A nurse to take charge of two small children. An elderly lady preferred. To a competent person liberal wages will be paid. For particulars, apply at this office. 3t·

SAVE MONEY.—If you want posters, circulars, bill heads, cards, paper-books, first-class job work, plain or fancy, call at the REPUBLICAN office. All work done at Philadelphia prices.

PERSONAL.—Rev. J. D. Wilson, son of Peter Wilson, Esq., of Gregg tp, is passing the few weeks of respite accorded New York clergymen, among his early and attached friends in Centre county. Mr. Wilson is accompanied by his accomplished wife.

BELLEFONTE AND PINE GROVE STAGE LINE.—Leave Pine Grove at 6:00 a. m., arrive at Bellefonte at 10:00 a. m; leave Bellefonte at 2:00 p. m., for Agricultural College and Pine Grove Mills, daily, except Sunday.

JAMES KEEPS,
Proprietor.

STILL THEY COME.—We received, on Monday last, a basket of Sweet Bough apples, grown by Henry Garver, Esq., who resides in Potter tp., 2½ miles from Centre Hall. They were larger than any Bough apples we have ever seen, and much larger than those of the same variety presented us by Mr. Dale. One of them measured four inches in diameter.

PIC-NIC.—The Reformed Sunday school of Rebersburg, Pa., held a pic-nic in Wolf's woods, 1½ miles south west of that place, on Saturday, Aug. 14, 69.—The students of the County Normal Institute" had an invitation extended them, and they accepted. There was an excellent dinner served, and every one enjoyed themselves hugely; at least, appeared to.

HON. E. C. MCCLURE, banker, of Lock Haven, is taking his annual siesta at the residence of Hon Robt H. Duncan, of Spring Mills. An accomplished gentleman and scholar, of wide experience, not less noted as a prime business man, than for wit and high-toned socialist. Mr. McClure combines within him every characteristic desirable in a friend, or in business relations.

COUNTY NORMAL INSTITUTE.—This school opened on the 28th of July. It now numbers near thirty students, and near that many more are expected.—Teachers should avail themselves of this opportunity of receiving instructions in the science and art of teaching. We need a good corps of teachers in this county, and as we have no State Normal School in this District, this County Normal School should be well supported. The course of instruction is as near that of State Normals as practicable.

CAMPMEETING.—The Loop campmeeting, which commenced on Friday last, was attended on Sabbath last by about 500 people. The utmost decorum was observed, and much good is expected to result from the righteous gathering.

The meeting in Brush Valley was largely attended, a thousand or more persons participating. Great enthusiasm prevails, and the Divine power is manifesting itself in a powerful manner.

On Friday of this week, a campmeeting will commence about two miles from Spring Mills. A large attendance is predicted.

LOW SPIRITS.—Exercise for the body, occupation of the mind, these are the grand constituents of health and happiness, the cardinal points upon which everything turns. Motion seems to be a great preserving principle of nature, to which even inanimate things are subject; for the wind, waves, the earth itself, are restless, and the waving of trees, shrubs and flowers is known to be an essential part of their economy. A fixed rule of taking several hour's exercise every day, if possible, in the open air; if not, under cover, will be almost certain to secure one exemption from disease, as well as from attacks of low spirits, or annui—that monster who is ever waylaying the rich and indolent. Low spirits cannot exist in the atmosphere of bodily and mental activity.

SABBATH-SCHOOL PIC-NICS.—Camp-meetings and Sabbath-school pic-nics predominate "about these days." Some two hundred scholars, and friends, gathered at the Union Church, in Gregg tp., on Saturday last, and are said to have had an unusually pleasant occasion.

On Saturday of the present week, the Sabbath-school children of Spring Mills have arranged to hold a grand pic-nic in the beautiful grove adjoining the Spring Mills church. Rev. J. D. Wilson, N. Y. city, will address the gathering. Ample arrangements have been perfected to render the day one of much pleasure and profit.

At the Sabbath-school pic-nic in Ferguson tp., on Sabbath last, half a thousand, or more, children, relatives and friends gathered, and the day was made memorable for its interest and pleasure.

WAR! WAR!—D. Africa & Co., of Huntingdon, Pa., have declared war against high prices in the vegetable kingdom. They advertised that they would be in our town on last Wednesday, but a serious accident prevented them from coming. They will, however, be here to-day with their new and splendid Palace Market Car. After their arrival, we presume tomatoes, sweetpotatoes, watermelons, cantelopes, peaches, &c., &c., will be very plenty and exceedingly low.

W. W. MONTGOMERY, Esq., is Agent for the celebrated Singer Sewing Machine in this place. We have not room to notice the merits of this machine in this number, We will have more to say next week. See advertisement.

DIAMOND DRUG STORE.—F. S. Wilson, proprietor of the Diamond Drug Store, is determined to keep a little ahead of all competition. His supply of drugs and chemicals are fresh and pure, and his perfumery the best in the market. His sparkling Arctic Soda is a pleasant beverage indeed.

ICE CREAM.—Our enterprising friend, Z. T. Gudykunst, in his splendid establishment on High street, is always ready to supply his friends and customers with the best of ice cream. His room is large and well furnished, quiet, neat and genteel. He bakes excellent bread, cakes and pies, and keeps constantly on hand a large variety of candies, nuts, raisons, &c., &c. Call and see him.

FARM FOR SALE.—Persons desiring to purchase a first rate farm, should call at, once, at the REPUBLICAN office, or upon Bond Valentine, Esq. This farm contains about 195 acres, forty acres of which are meadow. The buildings—house, barn and out-buildings—are all the very best. It is located about 1½ miles from Bellefonte. There is a great bargain in this farm. Farmers desiring a first class farm, should call and see it. Terms easy.

OBITUARY.—Elizabeth M. Magee died August 9th, at ten o'clock and forty-five minutes, p. m. She was born the 4th day of March, A. D., 1834, thus making her age 35 years, 5 months and 5 days. Previous to her taking sick, which was about sixteen years ago, she united herself with the United Brethren in Christ, since which time she had led an unblemished christian life. A complication of diseases brought about her death. Rheumatism first, and five years ago, hemorrhage of the lungs united itself with the previous disease, and, three weeks before her death, she became afflicted with a tumor, caused by the rupture of the aorta. She endured her sufferings, during this long period, with meekness and patience, knowing that the "Lord chasteneth whom He loveth." Many persons visited her, among whom were forty ministers, who were always welcomed by her. She composed some few hymns, three of which, at her request, were sung at her funeral. She died without a murmur. †

BROWN BREAD.—J. S. McDowell, of the New Bakery, is gaining quite an enviable notoriety as a baker. He has, of late, been baking what is called brown bread. It is made of corn and rye flour mixed. It is just the thing for dispeptics, and Mr. McDowell knows how to bake it. As our Democratic Packerites all feel a little dispeptic, we would suggest that they eat nothing but brown bread. Better learn to eat it now; because, if the Democrats get into power, and carry out their ruinous free trade doctrines, the furnaces will all stop, the mine banks will cease to afford you a living, the manufactories will all stop. There will be no wages—no work. If this calamity ever should befall this State and Nation we tell our Democratic friends they will thank God for brown bread, or any other kind of bread. But it can never come until the honest people become fools. In the meantime, we will continue to recommend to weak stomachs Mr. McDowell's superior brown bread. His ice-cream is also exceeding ly fine, cold and rich.

LARGE YIELD.—Christian Dale, Esq., of Harris tp., brought to our office, last week, two specimens of new wheat. The one called "Deals Select White Wheat," is a splendid wheat, and yields well. Mr. Dale informed us that he threshed the wheat which grew on one acre and 37 perches of ground, chain measure, and it yielded 33 bushels, and weighed 65lbs to the bushel. The other, the name of which he could not at the time remember, but a white wheat with red chaff, is a choice article of wheat, and yielded 33 bushels to the acre, weighing 64 lbs to the bushel. The heads of these two varieties of wheat are not so large as that noticed by us a few weeks since, and raised by Geo. W. Thomas and T. G. Purdue, but is thought to be a superior article, and better suited to this soil and climate. Mr. Dale says the weevil never injures it. He ought to know, for he is one of our most successful and scientific farmers. Persons wishing to change their seed, should call, at once, upon Mr. Dale. Nine acres, on the old homestead farm, of the last named variety, yielded 442 dozens, large bind.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—A meeting of the County Society was held on Monday evening last. There was a good attendance, and more than usual interest manifested in the Annual Exhibition to be held this fall, on the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th of October, on the ground of the Society.

The premium list and committees will appear in our issue of next week. The Bald Eagle Valley Railroad, and the Tyrone and Clearfield Railroad will sell excursion tickets at reduced rates, good from the 5th till the 9th of October, inclusive. This is the first time this concession has been made the Society.

Messrs. Richard Conley, of Benner, Hon. Wm. Allison, Jr., of Howard, and H. N. McAllister, of Bellefonte, were chosen delegates to the annual meeting, at the Agricultural College, to be held on the 1st of September, next.

Messrs. William Shortlidge, Joseph M. Wilson, Roland Curtin, John T. Johnson, Frank S. Wilson, John Siebert and Sam'l Gilliland were appointed a committee to procure conveyances in which to take the delegate electors to the College.

President Burrows has information that there will be a much larger attendance than there has been for many years. It is to be hoped that this is so, as it will be an evidence that more interest is being taken, and that farmers are at last awakening to their true interests in fostering and encouraging those who, under all difficulties, have buoyed up and sustained this Institution.

GRAND.—The boarding house near the Milesburg campmeeting, kept by our friend Jos. Kitchen and his amiable lady, we found to be a grand affair. We were "an hungered," and they took us in, and we think we can safely say that not less than 150 hungry men and women were fed by them on Sabbath last. And such a table! Filled with the very best, and plenty of it. The very best of order prevailed, both at the camp ground and at the boarding-house.

FINE APPLES.—We were presented, last week, by Mr. C. Dale, with a fine lot of apples, embracing the following varieties: The Red Astracan, the Strawberry, the Golden Sweet and the Sweet Bough. It was hard for us to determine which variety we like best. No orchard, however, should be without several trees of each of the above named varieties. The Red Astracan commences to ripen about the middle of July—is a most excellent baking apple, and, when fully ripe, in August, is a supurb eating apple. Mr. Dale is hard to beat as a fruitist.

KISS HIM FOR HIS MOTHER.—It was a very pretty and pious conceit of that dear old lady to kiss that youth for his mother. So forcibly has it appealed, says an exchange, to popular admiration, that no inconsiderable number of young men have the same affectionate caress bestowed on them out of respect for that same venerable relative. A striking example of this was afforded a few evenings since by a young lady who enjoys the undivided affections of a down town clerk.—It so happened that, some weeks ago, his mother died. His heart was consoled in this great bereavement by the affectionate sympathy of his employer's fascinating daughter. It is not strange that this affection ripened into love. The parents noted and approved their daughter's choice, but wisely kept their own counsel. The interesting relations, however, were destined to come to light in a way they least expected. One evening the young couple were enjoying a pleasant tete-a-tete in a secluded part of the parlor. The old gentleman happened, by the merest accident, to step in and take a seat, unobserved by the young people. Suddenly his attention was arrested by one of those prolonged, luxurious kisses which only lovers can interchange.

"What noise is that?" the parent loudly exclaimed.

Silence like death.

"I say, Julia, what noise was that?"

"S-i r—Sir?"

"What are you doing there?"

"N-o-t h-i-n-g, sir?"

"Who are you kissing there?"

"Only—only William, sir; his mother's dead, you know—and—and I thought it wouldn't be wrong to kiss him for her, you know, sir?"

"Humph!" and the old gentleman took his leave, doubtless thinking how fortunate the deceased lady was to be so affectionately remembered.

For the Republican.

UNIONVILLE, July 21, '69.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I believe it would be with about as much propriety to run a flea through a ten-mile swamp for the grease he would yield, as to attempt to get up a good "local" in this part of the moral vineyard at present.

We have no cases of wholesale poisoning to record; no defunct infant discoveries to lament over, as has your friend "McCracken." What caused it, Mack; cheese?

We are enjoying now what we call warm weather. If you doubt it, come up and see for yourselves. We have a beautiful town; and in it you will behold some of the finest stock in the country, and everything else that has the least bearing upon agriculture. Our streets are beautiful. The tall, waving grass, (that is so much admired upon well regulated farms) now adorns our thoroughfares; but, in this case, as in some others, "distance lends enchantment to the view." Our Council expects to have a government contract for hay, no doubt.

We have a Council, somewhere; and, at one time, they passed a hog law, and had a pen built, in which to incarcerate the dirty porkers when they were found within the limits of our borough. Alas! now they (I mean the swine) roam at pleasure, rubbing their dirty sides against nicely whitewashed fences, and contribute largely to our agricultural department. Those, whose duty it is to arrest these nuisances, (the hogs,) will not do so, and the Council too indifferent to fine them for neglect of duty. We had better resume our relationship with the township; but I doubt whether they would associate with a set of men who can't run a borough.

Another grievance I would speak of. We have an excellent school law; as regards taxes, it is a wise and judicious one, when properly applied. Our school directors are going to make us pay our school and building tax within sixty days, if we wish five per cent. taken off; if not paid with in ninety days, five per cent. is added. That is all right, where it is necessary; but we will not need the money for one year, at the expiration of which time, it would all be in the hands of the Treasurer. Our directors, the majority of them, are the heaviest taxpayers, and are ready to "settle up" any time, and, no doubt, will do so within sixty days. Now, we might just as well have that five per cent., gentlemen, that you will have taken off. There is no hurry. The plan adopted may be all very nice; but it don't suit poor men.—Tax payers are much better pleased to have, even a good law, applied in the most advantageous manner.

The campaign has opened here in good style, and, with your consent, Col. Brown, we will have you up here very soon to give us one of your telling speeches.—With very little exertion, Jerry Butts will carry the county by six hundred, at least. We know of a good many Democrats that won't begin to touch Woodring. If Woodring is defeated so badly, a certain young gent in this town won't be deputy. "Oh, no, Joseph; not for Jo." LIBERI.

REPUBLICANS, do not forget the meeting in the Court House this, Wednesday, evening. Honest Democrats, come. We hope our Irish fellow citizens will make it a point to be present. Come one, come all.

TOMATOES.—C. W. Lambert, of the Sunny Side Gardens, has a most magnificent crop of the very best tomatoes.—He showed us a specimen bunch that surpasses anything we have ever seen of the tomato kind. Three tomatoes on one stem, or in one cluster, which weighed two pounds and ten ounces. Wesley knows how to do it.

SALOON.—We have, for the last seven months, been a close observer of the manner in which Mr. F. Smith conducts his Lager Beer Saloon. It is but two doors from our office. We take pleasure in saying that we have never known a fight, or any disturbance in his saloon. He keeps the best of order. He sells no rot-gut whiskey, or whiskey of any kind. He has a license to sell lager beer, and he sells it. We neither touch, taste nor handle, but we do say that if every person engaged in the business would adhere to the law as strictly, and keep as decent and orderly a place as does Mr. Smith, there would be very little trouble, and very little opposition from any one.

DR. SAGE & Co.

Gents—I am always reluctant to say any thing in favor of patent medicines, but I have found your Catarrh Remedy such an effectual soother in those annoying attacks which we term colds in the head," that I take pleasure in testifying to its merits. Two or three applications have always removed the disagreeable symptoms, dried the weeping eyes and quenched the Bardolphian flames of the nose. If it possessed no other virtue, its worth would be beyond price as a simple and effective antidote for the horrors of a "cold in the head."

Yours truly,
GEO. A. MARTIN.

CLUB ORGANIZED.—The political campaign has now opened in good earnest. The people of Centre county have grown tired of the rule of "cliques" and "rings," and have resolved to throw off the manicals which have so long bound them to the disloyal Juggernot, Democracy, and declare themselves freemen. Centre county has been cursed long enough with copperhead misrule. The people see it, and have resolved to act accordingly.—To this end the Republicans of Bellefonte, and quite a number of independent Democrats, met in the Republican Club Room, on last Saturday evening, and organized for the campaign. The meeting was large and very enthusiastic. It was called to order by Jas. H. Rankin, and Capt. Lytle elected President. Mr. Rankin then made a short, but very effective speech. The audience called out W. W. Brown, who made a few remarks. There is a "light in the window" for the Republicans of Centre this fall. A glorious victory awaits us. Democracy, by reason of its own corruption, is falling to pieces. The people will not submit to "ring" rule and aristocratic dictation. Free as the mountain air they breathe, they have resolved to vindicate their honor and manhood, and vote for Liberty and Right, and with the party that saved the Nation, the Constitution and the Union. Republicans, honest Democrats, awake! arouse! Rally around the Old Flag, and our brave and noble leader, Gen. Jno. W. Geary.

CAMP MEETING.—The Milesburg campmeeting is progressing gloriously. We understand that, on Monday night last, thirty six mourners were at the alter.—May the good work go on, is our sincere prayer. We were at the meeting on Sabbath last. Rev. Warren preached in the morning and evening, and Rev. Jas. Mullen at 3 o'clock, p. m. The sermons were good, well delivered, and, as we looked over that large audience, we could see by the countenances of some of the sinners, that they felt as if it were all intended for them; and, every here and there, throughout the vast assemblage, we could see an old backslider, the tears chasing each other, in rapid succession, down his cheeks, while he listened to the words of the Text, as they echoed and re-echoed over the ground and through the woods—"Why stand you hear all the day idle?" Their very actions proved that they did not feel at home—that they were strangers in the house of their friends—"without hope and without God in the world," but when we remembered that the God of Israel had declared Himself "married to the backslider," and again, that He "had no pleasure in the death of the wicked," we thought all the backsliders on the camp ground took courage, and we thought we could see and hear them resolving, then and there, "to return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting praises." Campmeeting is a good institution. We hope it will never be abandoned by our Methodist friends.

DODD'S NERVINE DID IT.

NEW LONDON, CONN., April 26, 1869.

REMEMBERED FRIEND—I thought it well to wait another week before writing, to see if I continued to improve, as I have been doing for some time, under the treatment of the new medicine, and I am happy to tell you that I am getting better—even faster than when you were here. I commenced the use of DODD'S NERVINE without anybody advising me to it. When I began with it I could only walk from my bed to the chair. My trouble has been extreme pain in the head, and has lasted over three years. All the medicine I have heretofore taken has failed to give any relief. I am now able to go up and down stairs, and daily improving. I consider the NERVINE the best medicine I ever found, and shall continue its use, for I am confident of entire recovery. I have taken only three bottles, and would not be without it on any account. Very truly, jy21'69-4w. MRS. I. S. NUTE.

WEDNESDAY MORNING Aug. 25 '69.

The Poor Farmer.

We saw the other day in one of our exchanges, a little paragraph with this heading, in which it was justly said that a "poor farmer cannot conceal the fact that he is a poor farmer." Nothing can be truer. His work lies before the world. Every passer can look upon it and record his judgement. There are his house, his barn, his out buildings, his implements, his horses and cattle. If he is a poor farmer it will be seen in all these. His very house-yard and barn-yard speak of his want of industry and thrift, in clear language. Yet there is no one more difficult to instruct or reform than the man who is determined to pursue his own wretched course, in the face of all his neighbors and the whole community. And there are two reasons for it. First, he loves the rum bottle; and if not this, then he is naturally lazy and a poor devil generally. In either case he has no future to live and work for; no pride or self-respect. If he is spoken to on the subject he replies that he thinks his mode of managing his farm the best; he was a farmer bred, his father a farmer before him; and he has nothing to learn from the jimerack course of modern days, by which, though the land may yield more, the cost in making it do so is far more than what he loses. As to his implements, when they are worn-out, he may think about geting others, but sees no use in throwing tools away that answer well enough. As to his house and garden, they are the same his father had, and if they were good enough for his father, what right had he to complain?—

He has little to send to market, and that a kind neighbor takes and sells for him. Ask him why he does not raise more for marketing, and he replies that it does not pay; the time and expense consumed in going to market, the wear and tear of horses and wagons, comes to more than what can be made out of it. He has reckoned it out and knows. If asked why he does not substitute a different variety of corn, oats, or other grain, for that from which he derives only half a crop, he replies that he gets along well enough with what he has, and it is adapted to his land, while new sorts may not be.

Everything is managed or mismanaged in the same way. Look at the broken shelvings of his hay-wagon; his cart with a wooden linchpin in one of the axles; the wheel-barrow with one leg; the roller, plows and harrow exposed all the year round to the weather, and some of them still lying where they were last used; the gears tied up with twine; the barnyard fence broken and the cattle roaming through the medows and tearing to pieces his couple of poor hay-stacks; the hogs rooting up the orchard and eating up the roots of the remaining grass; the fence in front of the house blown over by the wind three or four months ago and still lying there; the approach to the house thick with mud; coal-ashes, flat stones or boards are to be seen. Everything indeed is in keeping, and however unpleasing and even painful it may be to others, and however impossible it may seem to others, that the poor farmer cannot but see it and deplore it too, though helpless to improve, it is not so. He does not see it. He will not know it. He likes it as it is!—Germantown Tel.

The Trees do Not Bear.

Several letters are at hand stating that the writers have trees of such and such varieties, planted so and so long, but which do not bear, and asking what is the matter. A tree goes on making a growth of wood for a greater or less number of years, according to the variety. At length the buds which might have prolonged into branches, take on a new development, and bear flowers and fruit. In the natural course of things, the time when this change will take place is governed mainly by the character of the soil. In a very fertile soil, the tree will make wood, in preference to forming fruit, for a longer period than it will in a poorer one. In orchards, the tendency to form wood is checked when the trees have attained a sufficient size, by seeding down to grass. Whatever checks the growth of the tree, and threatens its life, has a tendency to throw it into fruiting. The time required for different varieties to come into bearing varies greatly, and this is a point on which our fruit books are very deficient in information. Some varieties of pears, for instance, will bear in two or three years from the bud, while with others one must wait for eight or ten years; and it is so with apples. With varieties which are naturally late in coming into bearing, our advices is to wait; but where a tree, which should bear, does not give fruit when at a reasonable age, we should root prune. The best time to do this is in the spring. Dig a trench around the tree, at a distance of one foot from it, for each inch of the diameter of the trunk, i. e., a tree three inches through will have a trench forming a circle six feet in diameter. Dig down, and with a very sharp spade cut off every root that extends beyond the trench. There are modes of summer pruning to induce fruitfulness, but these can be applied to only a few trees, while root-pruning can be readily applied on the large scale.

The greatest of men live unseen to view, while thousands are not qualified express their influences.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TOWN LOTS FOR SALE, HAVING THE FOLLOWING MERITS.—

They are near the Court House.
They are not on a hill.
They are located on one of the principal streets of the Borough.
They are very low in price.
They will be sold on a reasonable credit.
Half the marketing entering Bellefonte passes in front of these lots, and may be had, which is an important consideration; for, who has not travelled the rounds of the stores in search of butter, &c., and returned home disappointed?

For a residence and boarding house for any who do not wish to loose time going to or returning from meals, these lots are very desirable. Apply to

COMPLETION OF THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

GREAT RUSH TO STERNBERG'S.

Sung to the Tune of "Yankee Doodle."

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And now comple connection's made,—
An enterprising notion.

The mighty work at last is done,
So speedily and brisk, oh!
And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about,
And wore out all their clothing.

CHORUS, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of the elegant and substantial Spring and Summer Clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.

People who travel by other routes, and also people who, instead of traveling by any route at all, prefer to stay at home, can find the most superior and seasonable garments, for every occasion, of every variety, and at the lowest prices.

Do not fail to call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere; if you do not, we are sure you will be sorry that you did not. Our goods are put down to the lowest figure. We sell whole suits, according to quality,

RANGING FROM $6.50 TO $18.00

NEW DRUG STORE.

IN BROCKERHOFF'S NEW BLOCK

BISHOP ST., BELLEFONTE, PA.

The undersigned take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Bellefonte—Centre, Clinton and Clearfield counties in general, that they have just opened their New Drug Store for the accommodation of the public, and they hereby extend a cordial invitation to all who may be in need and wish to obtain Fresh, PURE AND GENUINE MEDICINES, CHEMICALS, DRUGS & all such articles as are kept in a FIRST CLASS DRUG STORE, lately selected with great care in the cities of N. York and Philadelphia, by the Senior partner of the establishment, who has had over 30 yrs experience in the art. The German Language spoken, read and written here, as well as the English Tongue, hence Physician's prescriptions will be accurately and carefully compounded, in either Language, and at all hours during the day or night. We modestly and kindly ask for a liberal share of public favor and patronage. We make no attempt to enumerate the articles kept in our establishment, since such enumeration would take up the greatest space of a newspaper. We would merely say here that our SELECTION & ASSORTMENT is well nigh complete. Come and judge for yourselves. Besides the regular DRUGS, MEDICINES & CHEMICALS, we have a fine lot of FANCY GOODS, such as

EXTRACTS AND PERFUMES

For Ladies; POCKET CUTLERY, BIRD CAGES, HANGING BASKETS, SODA FOUNTAIN WITH CREAM NECTAR, A LARGE and well selected lot of WALL PAPER and cheap at that, viz:—From Ten cents to $2.50 per Roll. GIVE US A CALL.

SEWING MACHINES.

AMERICAN BUTTON-HOLE

OVER SEAMING AND SEWING MACHINE COMBINED.

MEDAL AWARDED AT THE PARIS EXPOSITION, 1867.

In directing attention to the celebrated COMBINATION BUTTON HOLE AND SEWING MACHINE, we feel fully warranted in claiming for it unquestionable superiority over all others as a Family Machine.—The Simplicity, Ease and Certainty with which it operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, certainly place it far in advance of any other similar invention of the age.

It is also the cheapest, intrinsically, as well as the best, since it is really two machines combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch or Button Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparatively noiseless, easily understood, and, in a word, it combines with those advantages exclusively its own the most desirable qualities of all others, for it not only does every variety of sewing in a SUPERIOR MANNER, but in addition OVERSEAMS splendidly and makes beautiful BUTTON and EYELET HOLES in all fabrics. This is far beyond the capacity of any other machine.

The SPLENDID MECHANISM of this Machine, and the superior skill workmanship and materials employed in its construction, are a guarantee of accuracy, strength and durability, and enable the company and its agents to Warrant Every Machine they sell to give entire satisfaction.

INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN ON THE MACHINE GRATUITOUSLY.

Lessons may be taken if desired with a view to test the Machine, or to become better acquainted with it before deciding to purchase. Samples of work will be furnished upon application at

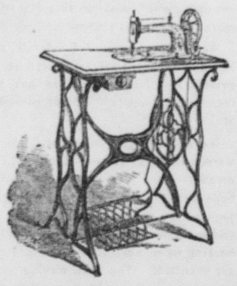
SEWING MACHINE.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINE.



Among sewing machines, those made by the Singer Manufacturing Company, rank with the highest. Their manufacturing machines, have long been known as the best for manufacturing purposes. But within the past few years, they have given special attention to the production of a

FAMILY MACHINE,

destined to win much favor in the

HOUSEHOLD.

The machine which they now offer is quiet, light-running, simple, fast, noiseless. Its accessories for

HEMMING, BRAIDING, BINDING,
QUILTING, TUCKING, CORDING,
FELLING, GATHERING,

are simple and easily understood. Its delicate though enduring and tireless muscles of iron and steel, do all the work noiselessly, better, and few will deny, "Faster than hand can do it." They urge those wishing to purchase a machine, to examine all the other manufactures before buying, as it will, for itself, overcome all the objections to the other machines that can be brought against it. Machines on hand for sale and exhibition, together with a full and complete assortmet of

SILK, TWIST, LINEN, OR COTTON THREAD,

All manner of work such as Scroll Sawing, Moulding, Brackets, &c., &c made after any desired pattern,

ON THE SHORTEST NOTICE.

This company is composed of practicable mechanics, and Samuel Adams, one of the Co., has been foreman of the Bellefonte Planing Mill since its commencement.

Connected with the mill, and in operation at all times, is one of the latest improved

COKE DRYING KILNS;

which leaves the lumber in a perfectly healthy state, assists in preserving it, and in fact adds to its lasting qualities, while other methods of drying deteriorate, and renders it more liable

TO DECAY AND WASTE.

Lumber dried in a Coke kiln, is dried perfectly, and when worked and put up, will not

SHRIVEL AND SHRINK,

thus giving buildings the appearance of having been erected out of Green Material

We know that our facilities give us every advantage over other

LOSE'S LIVERY STABLE.

The undersigned having entered into partnership in the Livery Business, under the firm name of Isaac Lose & Son, adopt this method of informing the people of Bellefonte, and the public generally, that they will carry on the business in the Burnside Stable. It is their determination to keep the very best and to hire them out at the most reasonable rates. Thankful for the kindness and favor they have received from the community in the past they will make it their chief object to merit the continuance of the same.

HORSES, BUGGIES AND CARRIAGES,

ISAAC LOSE.
